

Paul Edgerton

Paul Edgerton has over 30 years of experience in the Life Sciences Industry. Since 1996, he has built a strong track record in Executive Search, successfully completing hundreds of assignments for Medical Technology, Diagnostics and Life Science Tools companies. This includes Board Members for public and private companies, Presidents, Chief Executive Officers, Chief Operating Officers and Senior Leaders for Commercial, Research & Development and Physician Executive roles.

Previously, Paul had increasingly responsible corporate roles in Sales and Marketing Management, Operations and Business Development, including 15 years with Becton Dickinson (BD) and 5 years with mid-sized and early-stage companies (Carl Zeiss, Air-Shields and Omni Rehab Systems). Drawing on his industry experience, Paul speaks on panels and makes presentations to trade groups. He also provides strategic and operational consulting services for clients.

Paul earned his MBA from Rutgers University and a B.A. in Psychology and M.S. (Health Education) from Cortland State University.

Paul and his wife of 30 years live in Bucks County, Pennsylvania.
